The ALJ Hearing
General Advice

• Don’t be intimidated
• Non-adversarial process
• Know the law, address the issues, be clear and concise, and get objections on the record
Appear and Present Evidence

• Right to appear and present evidence:
  • Any party to a hearing has the right to appear and state their position

• Issues, items/services, and relevant dates:
  • Listen closely to ALJ’s opening to make sure issues are framed properly, the correct items and services are being considered, and the correct dates are mentioned
Additional Documentation

• Ask ALJ if they received any additional evidence you sent and ask that documentation be made part of the record

• Important because Medicare Appeals Council at next level will only consider evidence contained in the record of proceedings before the ALJ
Objections

• Object to documentation you think should not be made a part of the record

• If another party submitted documentation without also sending it to you, object and ask for additional time to review and respond to the documentation
Conduct of the ALJ

• ALJ provides a de novo review
• ALJ hearing is informal—rules of evidence do not apply
• Unrepresented beneficiaries must be assisted by ALJ
• ALJ must provide an individualized assessment of beneficiary
Presenting the Argument

• Oral argument should include:
  • Recitation of the facts
  • Citation to relevant law
  • Other support including medical research, etc.

• Written statement

• Witnesses
Know the Law and Relevant Citations

• Know the law regarding coverage criteria
• Know the law regarding notice requirements
• Know the law regarding appeals
  • Note that ALJ’s, providers, and contractors sometimes don’t know the law. Providers sometimes make up law/legal standards.
Keeping the Record Open

• Keeping the record open:
  • Can ask that record be kept open after the ALJ hearing so that you can submit additional information

• Supplemental hearing:
  • Can ask for a supplemental hearing to submit additional information
After the Hearing
Time Frames for Deciding an Appeal

• 90 calendar days for Part A and B appeals
• 90 calendar days does not apply to Part C appeals.
  • Current CMS policy is to prioritize beneficiary/enrollee appeals
• 10 calendar days for Part D expedited appeals
Written ALJ Decision

• Review decision carefully to determine if there are any appealable issues

• If there are technical issues in the decision, may ask ALJ to re-open case and issue an amended decision
After the Hearing Options

• Appealing the ALJ decision:
  • May request a review from the Medicare Appeals Council
  • Request must be in writing and within 60 calendar days of receipt of decision
Attorney’s Fees

Q: Who can pay our attorney's fees? Is approval required? Any limitation on fees?

A: Fee must be approved by the Administrative Law Judge for services associated with the ALJ and DAB/MAC appeal. Reasonableness of fee will be evaluated in context of the complexity of services.
